

Election form 50/50 section of the LGPS: Councillors

What is the 50/50 section?

There are two sections in the LGPS – the main section and the 50/50 section. In the main section you pay full contributions, and your pension builds up as a 1/49th of your pay. In the 50/50 section, you pay half contributions, and your pension builds up as a 1/98th of your pay. Regardless of which section you are in, you get full ill health protection and full survivor benefits in the event of your death.

You can move to the 50/50 section at any time. To join, you must tell your employer by filling in this form. You will move to the 50/50 section in the next available pay period after your employer received this form. Your employer's contribution will remain at the full rate.

If you have more than one job you can join the 50/50 section in one, some, or all your jobs. Where you have more than one employer, a separate form must be completed and returned to each employer.

Additional contributions

If you move to the 50/50 section and are also buying extra pension in the LGPS through additional pension contributions (APCs) or Shared Cost APCs (where the cost is split between you and your employer), the APC contract must end. You also can't take out a new APC contract to buy extra pension whilst you are in the 50/50 section.

However, if you are paying SCAPCs to buy lost pension from a period of authorised unpaid leave or unpaid child-related leave, these contracts can continue, and new contracts can be taken out. This is also the case if you are paying APCs (full cost to you) to buy lost pension because of a trade dispute or unpaid authorised leave of absence.

Additional voluntary contributions (AVCs) are not affected if you move to the 50/50 section.

Can my employer ask me to join the 50/50 section?

No, if you're asked or made to join the 50/50 section against your wishes, tell The Pensions Regulator at: www.thepensionsregulator.gov.uk/contact-us

How long can I stay in the 50/50 section?

If, during a month, you're off work without pay, because of illness or authorised parental leave, and you're still off with no pay for a second month, your employer will move you back into the main section of the LGPS. This means you will build up full pension benefits, even though you won't be paying pension contributions. When you return to work, you can move back into the 50/50 section.

You can move back into the main section of the LGPS at any point, if you're under 75 and are still in a job that offers membership of the scheme. To re-join the main section, you can fill in an 'opt in' form, which is available in the Councillors section of the fund's website (www.shropshirecountypensionfund.co.uk). Once your employer receives the form, your full contributions will start being taken the following month. If you're in the 50/50 section in more than one job, you can move back into the main section in all or some of your jobs.

If you begin a second job with your current employer or move to a new job under another LGPS employer, you will be put into the main section of the LGPS for that new job. You can then choose to join the 50/50 section.

3. Declaration

By signing this form, I confirm that:

- I have read and understood the notes.
- I wish to move to the 50/50 section in the jobs listed on this form.
- I understand that whilst I'm in the 50/50 section, I will only be building up half my normal pension in that job. My employer's contribution rate is still paid in full and not at half rate.
- I understand the choices I make now are important in planning for my retirement and that if I choose to join the 50/50 section, I will have a lower income when I retire than if I was a member of the main section of the LGPS.
- I understand that any additional pension (APC) contract I have (to buy additional pension in the LGPS) must stop (unless it is to buy pension 'lost' during a period of authorised unpaid leave, absence, or during a period of unpaid additional maternity, paternity, or adoption leave).
- I have not been forced or asked by my employer to join the 50/50 section of the LGPS.
- I'm aware that at any time whilst I'm eligible for membership of the LGPS I can choose to opt back into the main section of the LGPS by making an election to my employer.
- I know that:
 - If, during a pay period, I go onto no pay due to sickness or injury, or during a period of ordinary maternity leave, ordinary adoption leave or paternity leave, and I'm still on no pay at the BEGINNING of the next pay period, my employer will then move me back into the main section of the LGPS.
 - On my return to work I would have the right to make an election to move back to the 50/50 section if I wished to do so.
